SHORT BUT SWEET:

A young man who had been hired by a large supermarket chain reported to work at one of the stores. The manager greeted him with a warm handshake and a smile, handed him a broom and said, 'Your first job will be to sweep out the store.' 'But,' the young man said, 'I'm a college graduate.' 'I'm sorry,' the manager said, 'I didn't know that. Here, give me the broom and I'll show you how.'

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

'Never forget that the pressures of modern life are only a man-made game. You can take a break whenever you wish. It isn't necessary to stress yourself to the level of those around you. Take nothing as seriously as your universal right to seek peace.' Markus Almond

'Beauty surrounds us, but usually we need to be walking in a garden to know it.' Rumi

'If you want to build a ship, don't drum up the men to gather wood, divide the work and give orders. Instead, teach them to yearn for the vast and endless sea.' Antoine Exupery

'When thinking about life, remember this: No amount of guilt can solve the past and no amount of anxiety can change the future.' Dani Johnson

'Never be afraid to raise your voice for honesty, truth and compassion against injustice & lying and greed. If people all over the world would do this, it would change the earth.' William Faulkner

'An elderly person often contains a lot of fire amid what appears as dead ashes.' Joyce Rupp

'If you just set out to be liked, you would be prepared to compromise on anything at any time, and you would achieve nothing.' Margaret Thatcher
