OUR GREATEST NEED:

If God had perceived that our greatest need was economic, he would have sent an economist. If he had perceived that our greatest need was entertainment, he would have sent us a comedian or an artist. If God had perceived that our greatest need was political stability, he would have sent us a politician. If he had perceived that our greatest need was health, he would have sent us a doctor. But he perceived that our greatest need involved our sin, our alienation from him, our profound rebellion, our death; and he sent us a Saviour.

ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

A New Year's resolution is something that goes in one year and out the other.

WEBSITE OF THE WEEK:

www.corkautism.ie. The Cork Association for Autism provides a range of services to adults with Autism in the Cork and Kerry area.

SHORT BUT SWEET:

After a worship service at First Baptist Church in Newcastle, Kentucky, a mother with a fidgety seven-year-old boy told how she finally got her son to sit still and be quiet. About halfway through the sermon, she leaned over and whispered, "If you don't be quiet, Pastor Charlton is going to lose his place and will have to start his sermon all over again!" It worked!!

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"Many years ago I resolved never to bother with New Year's resolutions, and I've stuck with it ever since." Dave Beard

"Life is like an onion: You peel it off one layer at a time, and sometimes you weep." Carl Sandburg

"One of the most tragic things I know about human nature is that all of us tend to put off living. We are all dreaming of some magical rose garden over the horizon instead of enjoying the roses that are blooming outside our windows today." Dale Carnegie

"I am not afraid of storms for I am learning to how to sail my ship." Louisa Alcott

"When you see a good person, think of becoming like them. When you see someone not so good, reflect on your own weak points." Confucius

"You need to find a way to live your life, that it doesn't make a mockery of your values." Bill Ayers

"Next time you're faced with a choice, do the right thing. It hurts everyone else in the long run." Wendelin Drannen
