ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

Faith is like the bird that can feel the light and sing even when the dawn is still dark !

WEBSITE OF THE WEEK:

www.wmi.ie World Missions Ireland brings the hope of the Gospel where there is turmoil, poverty or uncertainty, and aid to where the Church is new, young or poor.

SHORT BUT SWEET:

A newly-ordained pastor, in the first days of his first call, was attempting to console the widow of an eccentric man who had just died. Standing before the open casket, the nervous young pastor said, "I realize this must be a very hard blow for you, Mrs. Svenson. Just try to remember that what we see before us is only the husk, the shell of your dear husband—the nut has gone to heaven."

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"Can you see the holiness in those things you take for granted – a paved road or washing machine? If you concentrate in finding what is good in every situation, you will discover that your life will suddenly be filled with gratitude, a feeling that nurtures the soul."

Harold Kushner

"Each dish I wash is my most cherished child. Each movement contains boundless love."

Barbara Kipfer

"Listening creates a holy silence. When you listen generously to people, they can hear the truth in themselves, often for the first time."

Rachel Nemen

"There is no security except in knowing that however fast and far we fall, there is God beneath us; we are falling into God's arms."

Carol Zaleski

"Character builds slowly, but it can be torn down with incredible swiftness."

Faith Baldwin

"That substance or behaviour you're addicted to is not your friend. It's your Judas kissing your cheek so it can hand you over to your killing."

Beth Moore

"The awareness of life as liberating rather than burdensome is the most refreshing blessing a soul can have."

Joan Chisttner
