SHORT BUT SWEET:

The pro football team had just finished their daily practice session when a large turkey came strutting onto the field. While the players gazed in amazement, the turkey walked up to the head coach and demanded a tryout. Everyone stared in silence as the turkey caught pass after pass and ran right through the defensive line. When the turkey returned to the side-lines, the coach shouted, "You're terrific!!! Sign up for the season, and I'll see to it that you get a huge bonus." "Forget the bonus," the turkey said, "All I want to know is, does the season go past Christmas Day?"

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"If there were dreams to sell, what would you buy?" Thomas Beddoes

"Every man should keep a fair-sized cemetery in which to bury the faults of his friends."

Henry Beecher

"Don't spend your precious time asking 'Why isn't the world a better place?' It will only be time wasted. The question to ask is 'How can I make it better?' To that there is an answer."

Leo Buscanglia

"Be brave. Do not pray for the hard thing to go away. But pray for a Bravery to come that's bigger than the hard thing." Anne Voskamp

"If one dream should fall and break into a thousand pieces, never be afraid to pick one of those pieces and begin again." Flavia Weedn

"Don't run away from grief, o soul, Look for the remedy inside the pain, because the rose came from the thorn and the ruby came from a stone." Rumi

"Part of growing up is just taking what you learn from that and moving on and not taking it to heart." Beverly Mitchell
