ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

There are two ways to be clever:
1. Think of a bright remark in time to say it
2. Think of it in time not to say it!

WEBSITE OF THE WEEK:

www.pathwaystogod.org. How to live Gospel values in relationships, in prayer, in the home.

SHORT BUT SWEET:

Henry Ford once asked one of his young engineers about his life goals. The man replied that his goal was to make a million dollars. A few days later Ford gave the man a pair of glasses made with two silver dollars where the lenses should be. He told the man to put them on and asked "What do you see?" "Nothing," the man said. "The dollars are in the way."

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"When you have faith in God, you don't have to worry about the future. You just know it's all in His hands. You just go to and do your best."

Elder Bryan

"Life's ups and downs provide windows of opportunity to determine your values and goals. Think of using all obstacles as stepping stones to build the life you want."

Marsha Sinetar

"Change, for me, is the spice of life. It is bittersweet, sometimes honey, sometimes lemon, but never bland."

Charlotte O'Dea

"Keep yourself busy if you want to avoid depression. For me, inactivity is the enemy."

Matt Lucas

"Sadly enough, the most painful goodbyes are the ones that are left unsaid and never explained."

Jonathan Harnisch

"Wherever you find a problem, you will usually find the finger-pointing of blame. Society is addicted to playing the victim."

Stephen Covey

"There are instances when it takes courage to remain silent. It would be easier to speak up, but the right thing to do is to be silent."

Zelig Pliskin

"If you are patient in one moment of anger, you will escape a hundred days of sorrow."

James C. Nova
