SHORT BUT SWEET:

A man was on a long walk in the country. He became thirsty so decided to stop at a little cottage and ask for something to drink. The lady of the house invited him in and served him a bowl of soup by the fire. There was a wee pig running around the kitchen, running up to the visitor and giving him a great deal of attention. The visitor commented that he had never seen a pig this friendly. The housewife replied: "Ah, he's not that friendly. That's his bowl you're using."

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"Love and compassion are necessities, not luxuries. Without them humanity cannot survive." Dali Lama

"Every day is a new opportunity. You can build on yesterday's success or put its failures behind and start over again. That's the way life is, with a new game every day, and that's the way baseball is." Bob Feller

"Unless commitment is made, there are only promises and hopes... but no plans."

Peter Drucker

"We became Christians by faith in Jesus, we stay Christians by faith in Jesus, and we grow as Christians by faith in Jesus." J.C. Ryle

"Every choice moves us closer to or farther away from something. Where are your choices taking your life? What do your behaviours demonstrate that you are saying 'yes' or 'no' to in life." Eric Allenbaugh

"What the mother sings to the cradle goes all the way down to the coffin." Henry Beecher

"There is a loftier ambition than merely to stand high in the world. It is to stoop down and lift mankind a little higher." Henry Van Dyke

REFLECTION:

May the God of the misty dawn waken you;
May the God of the rising sun stir you up;
May the God of morning sky send you on your way;
May the God of noonday stillness renew your strength;
May the God of afternoon bring you home;
May the God of sunset delight your eye;
May the God of twilight calm your nerves;
And the God of dusk bring you peace;
And may God bless you,
The Rising and the Setting Sun,
The Alpha and the Omega,
The Beginning and the End,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit."
