HOLY SOULS MONTH:

Sunday, 1st November - Feast of All Saints.

Vigil Mass (Sat) @ 7.30pm. Sunday @ 10am.

Monday, 2nd November - Mass for the commemoration of all the faithful departed will be celebrated online at 10am without a congregation. Parishioners are invited to submit a full list of their deceased family members in the envelopes provided in the porch and from the parish office. Please return the completed lists to the parish office during office hours or you can post through the letter box. Masses will be offered on each First Friday for the next 12 months.

November visit to Clonfert: Unfortunately will not be celebrated publicly this year.

Remembrance mass:

For those who died over the past 12 months has been postponed until further notice.

THE CROSS OF LIGHT OF HOPE:

Will be on display again this year in St. Mary's Church during the month of November. Light a special candle for a deceased family member and place on the cross.

THANK YOU: Fr. Francis would like to thank everyone for your support, kindness and generosity with your weekly and station offerings.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION 2021:

Parents/Guardians who wish to enrol their child for the sacrament are asked to email or phone the parish office for a copy of the enrolment form. Thank you.

ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

Happiness depends on you - Don't expect someone else to give it to you!

WEBSITE OF THE WEEK:

www.gript.ie. Delivering news and analysis without the liberal filter.

AUTUMN DAYS:

In these Autumn days may a story be told of banishing our fears as green turns to gold. As the leaf changes colour may it whisper "I'm here" and as it falls to the ground point to next year.

For winter will follow with spring on its heels in the sprouting of buds new green it reveals.

May it speak to us now and help us to cope in these uncertain times may it offer us hope.

SHORT BUT SWEET:

In these strange times of self-quarantining, like many others are during this worldwide novel coronavirus pandemic, we must bite our lips and endure...

Day 1 - I can do this!! Got enough food and wine to last a month!

Day 2 - Opening my 8th bottle of wine. I fear wine supplies might not last Day 5 - Today, I tried to make hand sanitizer. It came out as jello shots!!

Day 6 - I get to take the garbage out. I'm so excited, I can't decide what to wear!

Day 8 - Went to a new restaurant called "The Kitchen". You have to gather all the ingredients and make your own meal. I have no clue how this place is still in business!

Day 10 - Struck up a conversation with a spider today. Seems nice. He's a web designer.

Day 11 - Isolation is hard. I swear my fridge just said, "What the hell do you want now?"

Day 12 - I realized why dogs get so excited about something moving outside, going for walks or car rides. I think I just barked at a squirrel.

Day 14 - Watched the birds fight over a worm. The Cardinals led the Blue Jays 3-1.

Day 15 - Anybody else feel like they've cooked dinner about 395 times this month?

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"If a child is to keep alive his inborn sense of wonder, he needs the companionship of at least one adult who can share it, rediscovering with him the joy, excitement and mystery of the world we live in." Rachel Carson

"Real difficulties can be overcome; it is only the imaginary ones that are unconquerable."

Theodore Vail

"Wrinkles should merely indicate where smiles have been."

Mark Twain

"Every piece of the universe, even the tiniest little snow crystal, matters somehow. I have a place in the pattern, and so do you."

T.A. Barron

"What we see depends mainly on what we look for."

John Lubbock

"Now and then it's good to pause in our pursuit of happiness and just be happy."

Guillaume Apollinaire

"Rather than admit a mistake, nations have gone to war, families have separated, and good people have sacrificed everything dear to them. Admitting that you were wrong is just another way of saying that you are wiser today than yesterday."

Don Ward

"Sometimes you have to watch somebody love something before you can love it yourself. It is as if they are showing you the way."

Donald Miller

"Start with what is right rather than what is acceptable."

Peter Drucker

"Heroes often embody the principles of great leadership: hope, confidence, and unshakable moral courage."

Frank Williams

"There are always flowers for those who want to see them."

Henri Matisse
