ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

I asked a wise man, "Tell me sir, in which field could I make a great career?" He said with a smile, "Be a good human being. There is a lot of opportunity in this area, and very little competition."

SHORT BUT SWEET:

The rain was pouring down outside a pub. There standing in front of a big puddle outside the pub was an old man, drenched, holding a stick with a piece of string dangling in the water. A city passer by stopped and asked him "What are you doing?". "Fishing" replied the old man. Feeling sorry for the old man, the city man says, "Come in out of the rain and have a drink with me". In the warmth of the pub as they sip their whiskies, the city gentleman, feeling superior, cannot resist asking, "So, how many have you caught today?". "You're the 8th", replied the old man.

I left for a while but don't worry, my dear I left to see wonders from my dreams and flowers that are not seen here.

I left for a while but I'll see you soon left to see the stars on the other side of the silver moon.

Left to walk the trails and sweet golden meadows where trees grow tall and beautiful yet there are no shadows.

I left for a while but I am really not that far oh, if you only knew how near you are.

I know that you miss me but if you only knew how beautiful it is, to see you, my love, from God's point of view.

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:
"Sometimes when one person is missing, the whole world seems depopulated."

Alphonse de Lamartine

"A humble person is one who always puts others first. His needs can wait. Her desires aren't pressing. His wants are outweighed by the needs of the others."

Rusty Kuhn

"My mission was to overcome every obstacle that came thereafter — to transform the nuclear winter into the spring of hope."

Akemi Bailey Haynie

"Nature's getting ready for a new start in the Spring. The Winter's just a resting spell for formulating her new resolves."

F. H. Dukessmith

"The struggle of today, is not altogether for today—it is for a vast future also"

Abraham Lincoln

"I would rather lose in a cause that will someday win, than win in a cause that will someday lose."

Woodrow Wilson

"When a Christian shuns fellowship with other Christians, the devil smiles. When he stops studying the Bible, the devil laughs. When he stops praying, the devil shouts for joy."

Corrie ten Boom

"Take as a gift whatever the day brings forth..."

Horace

"I've come to believe that each of us has a personal calling that's as unique as a fingerprint and that the best way to succeed is to discover what you love and then find a way to offer it to others in the form of service."

Oprah Winfrey

"Tenderness and kindness are not signs of weakness and despair, but manifestations of strengths and resolutions."

Khalil Gibran
