Daily Lenten reflections.

SHORT BUT SWEET: After trying a new shampoo for the first time, Morris mailed off an enthusiastic letter of approval to the manufacturer. Several weeks later he came home from work to a large carton in the middle of the floor. Inside were free samples of the many products the same company produced: soaps, detergents, tooth paste, and paper items.... with a "thank you" note from the manufacturer. "Well, what do you think?" asked his smiling wife, Ruth. "I think next time," Morris replied. "I'm writing to Volkswagen!"

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"I believe we can help heal the world with something as simple as daily acts of kindness."

Carolyn McKinstry

"Love is a springtime plant that perfumes everything with its hope, even the ruins to which it clings."

Gustave Flaubert

"There are two types of people ... those who come into a room and say, "Well, here I am!" and those who come in and say, "Ah, there you are!"

Frederick Collins

"Life's adventure is important. It is important to live each day to its fullest, whatever life brings you."

Jaycee Dugard

"The secret to living a happy and creative life is to be always prepared to take life's little lemons and turn them into soul-refreshing lemonade."

David Baird

"Sometimes we must strive just to live another day. Sometimes when you least expect it, your dream will be there."

Lena Garcia

"I am a seaman, Sir; and though the ocean is my home, I never venture on it without sufficient footing."

James Fenimore Cooper

"The ocean holds secrets, Baby. It sees a lot and tells nothing."

Lois Ruth Scott

"Whether the relationship thrives or withers isn't up to you alone. As the old saying goes, it takes two to tango."

Rashid Rashad

"Don't take yourself seriously, but take your relationship seriously."

Marie Faugerolas

"You can heal your mind, as surely as you can heal a broken leg."

Catherine Carrigan

We wish all Staff and Pupils a safe and happy return to school next week.
