MY WISH FOR YOU:

Comfort on difficult days, smiles when sadness intrudes. Rainbows to follow the clouds, laughter to kiss your lips. Sunsets to warm your heart, hugs when spirits sag. Beauty for your eyes to see, friendships to brighten your being. Faith so that you can believe, confidence for when you doubt. Courage to know yourself, patience to accept the truth. Love to complete your life.

SHORT BUT SWEET:

A Teenager is . . .

- A person who can't remember to walk the dog but never forgets a phone number.
- A youngster who receives her allowance on Monday, spends it on Tuesday, and borrows it from her best friend on Wednesday. -Someone who can hear his favourite singer 3 streets away but not his mother calling from the next room.
- A whiz who can operate the latest computer without a lesson but can't make a bed.
- A student who spends 12 minutes studying history and 12 hours studying for her driver's license. -A young woman who loves the cat and tolerates the brother.
- A budding beauty who never smiles until her braces come off.
- A boy who can sleep till noon on any Saturday he suspects the lawn needs mowing.
- An original thinker who is positive that her mother was never a teenager.

ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

If you cut God's light off, you'll be sitting in the dark with the devil !

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"There are losses that rearrange the world. Deaths that change the way you see everything, grief that tears everything down. Pain that transports you to an entirely different universe, even while everyone else thinks nothing has really changed." Megan Devine

"To wake in the night thinking your loved one is next to you, only to remember he isn't, is like losing him all over again." Hazel Smith

"It's easy to believe that technology can transform our world, but empathy is the true path to change and growth." Gautham Pallapa

"Heartbreak, among other things, means change, and often represents the opportunity for a fresh start." Swati Kumari

"Get rid of the stuff you don't want to face – just do it. Do the thing that you dislike having to do. Embrace Monday morning – eat the frog! – and the rest of the week will take care of itself." Sister Consilio

"Courage is being afraid and going on the journey anyhow." John Wayne

"Every evening I turn my worries over to God. He's going to be up all night anyway." Mary Crowley

"While we are mourning the loss of our friend, others are rejoicing to meet him behind the veil." John Taylor

"It's hard to turn the page when you know someone won't be in the next chapter, but the story must go on." Thomas Wilder

"The Grand essentials of happiness are: something to do, something to love, and something to hope for." Allan Chalmers

"Mending a broken heart is like putting together a jigsaw puzzle. You find a piece of your heart you recognize, and you build slowly around it." Randall Carpenter
