10 COMMANDMENTS OF FORGIVENESS:

1. Forgiveness is not easy.
2. Forgiveness is not forgetting. Nobody ever forgets where he buried the hatchet. It is not "forgive and forget" as if nothing wrong had ever happened, but rather, "forgive and move forward."
3. Forgiveness does not overlook evil or injustice for that would be to deny the truth.
4. Forgiveness does not mean approval. A strong person rebukes and forgives; a weaker person is too timid to rebuke and too slow to forgive.
5. Forgiveness begins with knowing you have been forgiven. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.
6. Forgiveness recognizes that people are always bigger than their faults. If we look for the good it is easier to forgive the bad.
7. Forgiveness allows the other person to start over again.
8. Forgiveness surrenders the right to get even. Vengeance is mine, says the Lord.
9. Forgiveness wishes the other well, and even prays for the blessing of the other person. "Love your enemies; pray for those who persecute you."
10. Forgiveness is twice blessed. Forgiveness does not change the past, but it does enlarge the future.

ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

Funny about getting older, your eyesight may weaken yet you can see through people much better !

REFLECTION:

At the end of the day, when skies are dark, in the quiet of night, as silence fills the air; before dreams are deep as the ocean, forgotten at dawn; let's remember, let's give thanks to our Father, God; always watching over us, night and day – never slumbering, never sleeping; always listening for our prayer; always being there, our burdens to bear, His love to share. Thank You, Lord for Your tender care Always.

SHORT BUT SWEET:

The proud father brought home a backyard swing set for his children and immediately started to assemble it with all the neighbourhood children anxiously waiting to play on it. After several hours of reading the directions, attempting to fit bolt A into slot B, etc., he finally gave up and called upon an old handyman working in a neighbouring yard. The old-timer came over, threw the directions away, and in a short while had the set completely assembled. "It's beyond me," said the father, "how you got it together without even reading instructions" "To tell the truth" replied the old-timer, "I can't read, and when you can't read, you've got to think".
